

INDEX TO VOL. XVI.

(NEW SERIES.)

ARTICLES AND SUBJECTS.

A.

D'Azèglio's Niccolò de' Lapi, 117—164. Characteristics of the Italian novel, 117. The Betrothed, 118. Marco Visconti, 119. D'Azèglio, 119. Ettore Fieramosca, 120. Niccolò de' Lapi, 121. Analysis of the plot, 121—162. D'Azèglio's political and religious influence, 163, 164.

C.

Chretien [Essay on Logical Method], 345—364. Condition of logical studies at Oxford, 345. The method of logic, 346. Its contrast to mathematics, 347. Its field, 348. Idea of Method, 349. History of Logic, 350—352. Nominalism and Realism, 353, 354. Modern Logic, the Conceptual and Verbal Schools, 355—357. Theoretical Logic, 358, 359. Character of Mr. Chretien's work, 360—364.

D.

Daubeny, Dr. [on Volcanos], 365—405. Universality of Chemical action, 365. Its influence on Volcanos, 366. Order of rocks, 367. Trap, 368. Volcanic regions, 369. France, Auvergne, &c. 370—374. Dykes, 375. Germany, 376. Italy, 377—382. Etna, 383, 384. Great Britain and Ireland, 385. Asia Minor, 386, 387. Caucasus, 388. Central Asia, 389, 390. Java, 391. The Pacific, 391, 392. The Southern Polar districts, 393. South America, 394, 395. Earthquakes, 396, 397. Thermal Springs, 398. Daubeny's theory, 399—405.

E.

Ecclesiology [Continental Ecclesiology, by Rev. B. Webb], 27—61. Foreign travel, 27, 28. Mr. Webb's qualifications, 29. Belgium, Germany, and the Tyrol, 30. Italy, 31. Antwerp, 32, 33. Brussels, 34. Cologne, 35. Nuremberg, 36—38. Milan, 39—44. St. John Lateran, 45—47. Condition of outward religion at Rome, 48, 49. Present German architects, 50. Munich, 51. Galleries, 52, 54. Pews, 55. Orientation, 56. Christian painting, 57. General Ecclesiological survey of Europe, 58—61.

Eastern Life [Miss Martineau's Eastern Life], 62—89. Changed aspect of the East, 62. Authors on the East, 63. Miss Martineau, 64. Her Egyptian journey, 65. First aspect of Cairo, 66—69. The Pasha, 70. Harems, 71, 72. Condition of women, 73. Miss Martineau's religious defects, 74, 75. Her views of ancient Religion, 76, 84. The presence of sacred scenes injurious to a sceptical mind, 85. Summary, 86—89.

F.

French Revolution of 1848 [Kelly's Narrative, &c.], 202—247. The year of Revolutions, 202. France the centre of European revolution, 203. French propagandism, 204. State of France before 1848, 205. Social evils, 206. Infidelity, 207, 209. Testified by infidel writers, 210, 212. Influence of social evil on French character, 213. Disorganized state of society, 214, 215. The Republican party, 216. Its progress and efforts, 217—231. The storm and crisis, 233. The catastrophe, 234, 238. Socialism, 239. Its religious aspect, 240. Its probable results and causes, 240—246. Events of June 24, 247.

G.

Girondists, the, [Lamartine's History of the Girondists], 165—190. The Girondists incapable of historical treatment, 165. Literary character of Lamartine's work, 166. Reign of Louis XVI, 167. The 10th of August, 169, 169. The King's imprisonment, 170. His condemnation and execution, 171—176. Character of Marie Antoinette, 177. Her sufferings and death, 178, 183. The persecution of the Church, 184. Defects of Lamartine's work, 185—190.

NN

H.

- Heresy, the New Test of, [Works by Messrs. Goode, Gorham, &c.], 456—494. Aspect of the Government towards the Church, 456—464. Clergy Offences Bill, 465. Combination of parties favourable to a new Test, 466, 467. Mr. Goode's Defence, 468. Result of Test, 469, 472. Bishop of Exeter's Charge, 473, 475. What Mr. Goode's party want, 476. Ordination Service, 477, 483. The Catechism, 480. Confirmation, 481. The Inspiration of Scripture, 482, 483. Results of accepting the Test, 484, 485. Mr. Goode's agitation in favour of Test, 486, 487. The petition, 488. Mr. Goode's activity, 489. His 'Vindication,' 490, 491. Adult Baptism, 492, 493. The petition analysed, 494.
- Hoare [Archdeacon Hoare on Baptism], 406—423. Apparent soundness of some passages in Mr. Hoare's book, 406. Importance of the discussion, 407. Disparagement of sacramental character of Baptism, 408. Only regarded as a covenant, 409. Its grace made to depend on prayer, 410—415. Inadequacy of Mr. Hoare's view, 416. His other errors, 416—423.

L.

- Lamb, Charles, [Talfourd's Final Memorials of C. Lamb], 424—455. A welcome work, 424. Lamb's life, 425, 426. His mother's death, 427. Coleridge to Lamb, 428. Lamb to Coleridge, 429. Lamb's self-sacrifice, 430. His affectionate character, 431, 433. His sister, 434. His character, 435, 436. Its religious defects, 437, 438. His intimacy with Coleridge, 439. His warmth of friendship, 440, 446. His estimate of his own works, 447. Value of the present Memorials, 448, 450. Lamb's generosity, 451. And hospitality, 452. Lamb's evening parties and dinners at Holland House, 453, 455.
- Lindsay, Lord, on Christian Art, 261—314. Lord Lindsay's philosophical principles, 261. The aim and province of Christian Art, 262—269. 'Progression by Antagonism,' analysed, 269—274. Its theory applied to art, 274—276. Unhappily, 277. The Calvinists, 278, 281.

Roman art, 282, 283. Byzantine art, 284, 286. Traditional likeness of our Lord, 287. Analysis and criticism of Lord Lindsay's volumes, 288—312. Its recommendations, 313, 314.

M.

- Maskell on Baptism [Holy Baptism, a Dissertation, &c.], 191—201. Hold of the Church on the practical view of Baptism, 191. Influence of scholastic language on our formularies, 192. Mr. Maskell's qualifications, 193. Character of his volume, 194, 195. His view of heretical and dissenters' Baptisms, 196. Not precise, 197. Contents of this Dissertation, 198—201.
- Mill's Political Economy, [Condition of the Labourer, &c.], 315—344. Mr. Mill's qualifications, 315. His style, 316. Production and Distribution, 317, 318. Faults of prevailing school of Economists—the Mercantile System, 319. The Industrial System, 320. Analysis and criticism of Mr. Mill's work, 320—340. Benefits of the Science of Economy, 340—344.

P.

- Pusey, Dr., recent Sermons [Sermons from Advent to Whitsuntide, &c.], 90—116. Progress of Doctrine, 90, 92. Allowances made for mistaking views, 93, 94. Character of these Sermons eminently practical, 95, 96. Doctrine of Remission of Sins, ibid. Sermon on our Lord's love for penitents, 97. Extract, 98—104. Analysis of, and extracts from, these Sermons, 104—116.

V.

- Verulam, Lord, [Novum Organum], 1—26. Neglect of the Organum, 1. Its author introduced, 2, 3; and not read, 4. Bacon's plan, 5, 7. State of Physical Sciences, 8—11. Bacon's humility, 12. His method, 13, 21. Applied to Theology, 21—26.

SHORTER NOTICES OF BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

JULY.—Mount's Guide to Candidates for Holy Orders—Wordsworth on the Canon of Scripture—Ford's Illustrations of S. Matthew—Watson's Seven Sayings on the Cross—Gresley's Sermons—Mill's Sermons—Moberly's Sermons—Rickman's Gothic Architecture—Harrison's Letter to Bowdler—Freeman on Proportion in Gothic Architecture—Bristol Architectural Society—Walter Blake—Marriott on Private Devotion—The Matin Bell—The Youthful Christian Soldier—Harmony of the Apocalypse—Harmony of the Gospels—Whewell's Edition of Butler's Sermons—Nugee on Confirmation—The New Heresy Test—Artegall—Oxford Architectural Society—Monro's Combatants—Ridley's Master and Servants—Mozley's Children's Books—Conversations on the Church Service—Hymns for Little Children—The Baron's Little Daughter—Tales of Kirkbeck—Sosthenes' Anti-Revolutionary Tracts—Prayer for the Times—Dawes on Education—Plea for the Middle Classes—Flower's Reading Lessons—Tute's Holy Times, &c.—Annerley—Speculum Episcopii—Spencer's Abridgment of Wall on Baptism—Fox's History of Rome—Via Dolorosa—The Artist's Married Life—It is Written—Historical Notices of Choristers—Letters of Scottish Bishops—Hussey on the Oxford Examinations—Frere on Unfulfilled Prophecy—Swayne's German Translations—Mant's Reginald Vere—Nind's Translation of Klopstock—Churches of Scarborough, &c.—Hymns for the Seasons—Rosa on the Church and Civil Power—Sewell's Sacro-Politica—Tracts and Sermons, &c. on Calvinism: by Grapel, Trower, White: at the Bishop of Oxford's Ordinations: by the Bishop of Brechin, Abraham, Seymour, Furneaux, Eardly-Wilmut, Scott.

OCTOBER.—A New Revelation, by the Foughkeepsie Seer—Peter Jones—Memoirs of Channing—Noble's Sermons—The Way of Faith—Analytical Hebrew and Chaldee Lexicon—A Few Words on Irvingism—Dale's Sermon—Burgess's Letter to Archbishop of Canterbury—A Layman's ditto—Parker's Ecclesiastical Topography—Gibson's Northumbrian Churches—Petit on Tewkesbury Abbey—Boutell's Brasses—Alison's Europe—Emily Vernon—Testimony to the Truth—Vaughan's Poems—Brooke on Baptism—State of Man before Christianity—Island of Liberty—Whitehead on Church in India—The Path of Life—Songs of Christian Chivalry—Harry and Archie—Renaudot's Oriental Liturgies—Garden's Discourses—Scottish Magazine—Huxtable's Essay—Eden's Edition of Stanley's Church-of-England Man—Neale's Ecclesiology—Fawcett's Sermons—Corfe's Mesmerism tried, &c.—Duke of Argyll on Presbyterianism—S. P. G. Report—Jer. Taylor's Reverence for the Altar—Vegeterian Advocate—Röhr's Poems—Coxe's Poems—Masters's Prayer-book—Browne's Hiero-Grammata—Grinfield's Scholia Hellenistica—Talmon and Hadasah—Christian Child's Book—Seven Corporal Works of Mercy—Devout Churchman—Ecclesias Curæ—Bristol Architectural Society—Heartsease and Dewdrop—The Holy Oblation—Tupper's Prayer—Dennis's Thoughts on Ceremonies, &c.—Lowe's Protest—Formby on Plain Chant—Remarks on Fasting—Letter to Lord J. Russell—Hints on Female Schools—Maskell's Visitation Sermon—Prayers against Cholera—Ventilation, &c.—Major's Outline Maps—Parker's New Tracts—Dora Greenwell's Poems—M'Clelland on Predestination—Charges by Bishops of Exeter, Worcester, Salisbury, and Fredericton: by Archdeacons Wilberforce and Manning—Sermons by Messrs. Anderdon, Holland, Jefferson, Warter, Bruxner, Robinson, Woodford—Mr. Bridge's Letter—Dr. Jarvis's Sermon.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

NEW YORK, N. Y.

1850

1851

1852

1853

1854

1855

1856

1857

1858

1859

1860

1861

1862

1863

1864

1865

1866

1867

